

Meet the Administrative Staff of the CYO Summer Day Camp Program

Camp Director - Rich Donovan

Rich works fulltime for the Office of Youth & Young Adult Ministry and oversees the Camp Program. This will be Rich's 27th summer working with the camp program, the last 21 years of it as being the Camp's Director.

Assistant Camp Director - Tara Mota

Tara has worked for the camp program for 7 years now, having been a counselor and most recently overseeing the Counselor In Training (CIT) Program. This summer Tara will serve as one our two assistant directors. During the school year Tara is an 8th grade teacher at St. Michael Catholic School in Newark.

Assistant Camp Director - Steve Bayonna

Steve returns this summer for his second year in a row being one of our assistant directors. Steve is no stranger to the CYO Camp—having attended camp from ages 5 til he aged out at age 12. During the school year Steve is a Physical Education teacher for the Newark Schools System.

Lunch and After Care Coordinator - Catherine Scheuermann

Catherine returns this summer after being one of our assistant directors for the past three years to specifically oversee the Lunch periods for all campers, and to coordinate and oversee camper pickups in the afternoon and during the After Camp Program. During the school year Catherine is a second grade teacher at St. James Catholic School in Springfield.

Camp Secretary - Victoria Perdigao

Victoria returns for her second camp season with us again as our Camp Secretary. Victoria is a Junior at Rutgers University in New Brunswick.
